Laws of the United States

Passed at the [illegible] the Thirty [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] ing regulation. And provided further, That officers [illegible] which they [illegible] shall, during [illegible] the pay, emoluments and allowances of cavalry officers of the same grade respectively.

Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That major generals shall be entitled to draw forage in kind for five horses, brigadier generals for four horses, [illegible] lieutenant colonels and majors for two horses [illegible] captains and lieutenants of cavalry [illegible] allowance for [illegible] chaplains for one horse.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That when ever an officer of the army shall employ a soldier as his servant he shall [illegible] during which such soldier shall be so employed, deduct from his own monthly pay the full amount paid to [illegible] expense of the government [illegible] each soldier, and every officer of the army who shall fail to make such deduction shall on conviction thereof before a general court martial be cashiered.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the first section of the act approved August [illegible], eighteen hundred and sixty one entitled "An act to increase the pay of privates in the regular army and in the volunteers in the service of the United States and for other purposes" shall not be so construed after the passage of this act as to increase the emoluments of the commissioned officers of the army. And the eighth section of the act of twenty-second July, eighteen hundred and sixty one entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property" shall be so construed as to give to quartermaster sergeants the same compensation as to regimental commissary sergeants.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That so much of the aforesaid act approved twenty-second July, eighteen hundred and sixty one as authorizes each regiment of volunteers in the United States service to have twenty four musicians for a band and fixes the compensation of the leader of the band be and the same is hereby repealed, and the men composing such bands shall be mustered out of the service within thirty days after the passage of this law.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That each brigade in the volunteer service may have sixteen musicians as a band who shall receive the pay and allowances now provided by law for regimental bands, except the leader of the band, who shall receive forty five dollars per month with the emoluments and allowances of a quartermaster sergeant.

Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That, in lieu of the present rate of mileage allowed to officers of the army when travelling on public duty where transportation in kind is not furnished to them by the Government, not more than six cents per mile shall hereafter be allowed, unless when an officer is ordered from a station east of the Rocky Mountains to one west of the same mountains, or vice versa, when ten cents per mile shall be allowed to him; and no officer of the army or navy of the United States shall be paid mileage except for travel actually performed at his own expense, and in obedience to orders.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That so much of section nine of the aforesaid act approved July twenty second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and of section seven of the act providing for the better organization of the military establishment, approved August third, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as defines the qualifications of chaplains in the army and volunteers, shall hereafter be construed to read as follows: "That no person shall be appointed a chaplain in the United States army who is not a regularly ordained minister of some religious denomination, and who does not present testimonials of his present good standing as such minister, with a recommendation for his appointment as an army chaplain from some authorized ecclesiastical body, or not less than five accredited ministers belonging to said religious denomination."

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That hereafter the compensation of all chaplains in the regular or volunteer service or army hospitals shall be one hundred dollars per month and two rations a day when on duty; and the chaplains of the permanent hospitals appointed under the authority of the second section of the act approved May twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty two shall be nominated to the Senate for its advice and consent, and they shall in all respects fill the requirements of the preceding section of this act relative to the appointment of chaplains in the army and volunteers; and the appointments of chaplains to army hospitals heretofore made by the President are hereby confirmed; and it is hereby made the duty of each officer commanding a district or post containing hospitals or a brigade of troops within thirty days after the reception of the order promulgating this act to inquire into the fitness, efficiency and qualifications of the chaplains of hospitals or regiments, and to muster out of service such chaplains as were not appointed in conformity with the requirements of this act, and who have not faithfully discharged the duties of chaplains during the time they have been engaged as such. Chaplains employed at the military posts called "chaplain posts" shall be required to reside at the posts and all chaplains in the United States service shall be subject to such rules in relation to leave of absence from duty as are prescribed for commissioned officers of the United States army stationed at such posts.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That so much of the fifth section of the act approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty one, as allows forty cents per day for the use and risk of the horses of company officers of cavalry, and the tenth section of the aforesaid act approved August third, eighteen hundred and sixty one, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That whenever an officer shall be put under arrest, except at remote military posts [illegible], it shall be the duty of the officer by whose order he is arrested to see that a copy of the charges on which he has been arrested [illegible] and that he shall be brought to trial [illegible] thereafter, unless [illegible] and [illegible] to trial within thirty days after the expiration of the said [illegible] [illegible] officers [illegible] of this [illegible] and awaiting trial.

Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That when [illegible] the United States [illegible] army [illegible] of the President to retire him from active service and direct his name to be entered on the retired list of officers of the grade to which he belonged at the time of such retirement; and the President is hereby authorized to assign any officer retired under this section or the act of August third, eighteen hundred and sixty one to any appropriate duty, and such officer thus assigned shall receive the full pay [illegible] of the grade while so assigned and employed.

Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That all contracts made [illegible] for the purchase of [illegible] in any department of the Government [illegible] reported to Congress by [illegible] department at Congress [illegible] and if not in session [illegible] at the commencement of the next session.

Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That no contract [illegible] interest therein shall be transferred by the party or parties to whom such contract [illegible] given to any other party [illegible] and that any such transfer shall cause the annulment of the contract or order transferred, so far as the United States are concerned. Provided, That all rights of action are hereby reserved to the United States for any breach of such contract by the contracting party or parties.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall furnish supplies of any kind to the army or navy shall be required to mark and distinguish the same with the name or names of the contractors so furnishing said supplies in such manner as the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy may respectively direct, and no supplies of any kind shall be received unless so marked and distinguished.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That when ever any contractor for subsistence, clothing, arms, ammunition, munitions of war and for every description of supplies for the army or navy of the United States shall be found guilty by a court martial of fraud or wilful neglect of duty he shall be punished by fine, imprisonment, or such other punishment as the court martial shall adjudge; and any person who shall contract to furnish supplies of any kind or description for the army or navy he shall be deemed and taken as a part of the land or naval forces of the United States for which he shall contract to furnish said supplies and be subject to the rules and regulations for the government of the land and naval forces of the United States.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be and hereby is authorized and requested to dismiss and discharge from the military service either in the army, navy, marine corps or volunteer force, in the United States service any officer for any cause which, in his judgment either renders such officer unsuitable for, or whose dismission would promote the public service.

Sec. 18. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States shall have power whenever in his opinion it shall be expedient, to purchase cemetery grounds, and cause them to be securely enclosed to be used as a national cemetery for the soldiers who shall die in the service of the country.

Sec. 19. And be it further enacted, That so much of the act approved the fifth of August, eighteen hundred and sixty one entitled "An act supplementary to an act entitled an act to increase the present military establishment of the United States," approved the twenty ninth July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as authorizes the appointment of additional aides de-camp be and the same is hereby repealed. But this repeal shall not be construed so as to deprive those persons already appointed in strict conformity with said act of the fifth of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, from holding their offices in the same manner as if it had not been repealed.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That the different regiments and independent companies heretofore mustered into the service of the United States as volunteer engineers, pioneers, or sappers and miners under the orders of the President or Secretary of War or by authority of the commanding general of any military department of the United States, or which having been mustered into the service as infantry shall have been reorganized and employed as engineers, pioneers, or sappers and miners shall be and the same are hereby recognised and accepted as volunteer engineers, on the same footing in all respects in regard to their organization, pay and emoluments as the corps of engineers of the regular army of the United States, and they shall be paid for their services already performed as is now provided by law for the payment of officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the engineer corps of the regular army.

Sec. 21. And be it further enacted, That any alien of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who has enlisted or shall enlist in the armies of the United States, either the regular or the volunteer forces, and has been or shall be hereafter honorably discharged, may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States upon his petition, without any previous declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and that he shall not be required to prove more than one year's residence within the United States previous to his application to become such citizen, and that the court admitting such alien shall, in addition to such proof of residence and good moral character as is now provided by law, be satisfied by competent proof, of such person having been honorably discharged from the service of the United States as aforesaid.

Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the Adjutant General's department by regular promotion of its present officers, one colonel, two lieutenant colonels, and nine majors, and that the grade of captain in said department shall thereafter be abolished and all vacancies occurring in the grade of major shall be filled by selection from among the captains of the army.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV 22 1862

New Line of Transportation

We have been informed by one of the parties interested that arrangements have been completed for the establishment of a new line of transportation from this city to Lewiston and other localities in the mining region of the Upper Columbia and territories, and we are further assured that this line will be in successful operation within 90 days from this time. It is further asserted that the contractors or shareholders of the Company, which we believe has adopted the name of the "People's Transportation Company," are all men of wealth and influence and that they have the requisite will and determination to carry out what they undertake. Several fine steamers are now ready and others in course of construction to run in this line which are said to be superior to those of the Oregon Steam Navigation Co in every respect. The steamer intended to ply between this city and the Cascades is now nearly completed, and it is confidently asserted that she will be able to make better time than any other steamer has ever made on these waters. A contract for the building of a steamer to run between the Cascades and the Dalles has been let to experienced ship builders, who are to have every thing complete and in running order within 90 days. The dimensions of this boat will be —length, 150 feet breadth, 25 feet depth of hold, 7 feet. She is to have double engines, 16 inch bore, with 6 feet stroke —Messrs. More & Marshal are the boiler contractors. This boat is to be built somewhat after the fashion of Mississippi steamers, with engines and smoke stacks on each side and wheels in the center, and when completed will present a very neat and pleasant appearance. It is believed that she too will be able to outrun the boats employed by the old Company on that route. Permanent arrangements have also been made for the safe transportation of freights, etc, across the portage at the Cascades.

The boat intended for the upper Columbia is the well known splendid steamer built by Messrs White & Co, and will be under the control of the most skillful pilot on the upper Columbia. Other boats will be built or entered upon the line, as circumstances may require, and we are assured that no efforts or expenses will be spared to make and keep in complete operation every thing connected with this line, with a view to the safe and speedy transportation of freight and comfort and accommodation of passengers.

As has been previously remarked by us, we are pleased to learn that there is a prospect of the establishment of another line which will be able to successfully compete with the one now in operation—not that we are particularly opposed to the Oregon Steam Navigation Company more than any other line but that we are in favor of competition which prevents a monopoly. We not only believe, but we may say that we know it to be for the interest and benefit not only of this city, but for the whole country at large, both east as well as west of the mountains, that all commercial transactions should be conducted upon principles of liberality and free intercourse. Competition should be allowed and sustained in order to secure transportation upon living terms. The channels which nature has formed for the accommodation of man in all his internal and external commercial transactions should be left free and open to all, which will thus preserve the just rights and privileges of every individual and prevent the usurpation of power by capitalists against the interests and advancement of poorer classes. We find no particular fault with the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, or any other transportation company, in their efforts to secure the business of this route, as it is no more than any other parties would do under similar circumstances, but we simply wish to be understood as favoring all honorable efforts for the establishment of opposition or competition lines of transportation to the great gold fields within our borders, which we all believe will ere long build up and enrich our young State, and every city, village and inhabitant thereof shall receive some benefit therefrom.

SAD DEATH OF MADAME ANNA BISHOP —We find the following brief announcement in the Milwaukie Sentinel of October 23d:

Madame Anna Bishop, the celebrated singer, was burned in St Paul on Wednesday of last week, by her clothes taking fire, from the effects of which she died on Friday following.

MAIL ROBBERY —We have information that the U S Mail—bound to Walla Walla—was robbed at Willow Creek station, on its last trip. The mail bags were left in the coach, and cut open and plundered. The same night six horses were stolen from the rancho at the station, among which were two of Mossman & Co's —Mountaineer.

JOHN MITCHELL —It is well known that this recreant Irishman sympathizes with the rebels. The Irish American learns that he is now in the South seeking the body of his second son, (John Mitchell) who was killed in the second battle of Bull Run.

Additional Eastern News

CINCINNATI Nov 14 —Gen Kelly on the 10 inst attacked Col Imboden's camp, eighteen miles south of Moorefield, Hardy Co, Western Virginia. The rebels were completely routed. A number of them were killed and wounded and fifty prisoners taken, with a quantity of arms, all their camp equipage, and a large number of horses, cattle and hogs. The rebels fled to the mountains.

BALTIMORE Nov 14 —The Harper's Ferry correspondent of the American says it is reported that Stonewall Jackson has returned to Winchester with a considerable force and was to move westward. The general impression is that he will go to Staunton, as General Cox's movement towards that place was exciting apprehensions among the rebels. A week ago Cox was in Highland county, twenty miles from Staunton.

WASHINGTON, Nov 14 —A dispatch from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac says: The news from the front is meager. Our advance corps is camped at Fayetteville, four miles from Rappahannock station. Skirmishing is going on almost constantly between our advance and the enemy's rear. The results are insignificant.

NEW YORK, Nov 14 —Advices from Port Royal say an expedition had torn up the rails on the Charleston and Savannah road for some distance but was driven off by troops from Charleston.

Rebel deserters reported that Beauregard was to attack Fort Pulaski about the 17th.

Harper's Ferry correspondence of the 13th says: The rebels have apparently abandoned the entire line of the Potomac. None of their troops have been seen in the vicinity of Martinsburg for a week.

A Lynchburg, Virginia paper says the number of deserters daily from the rebel army is startling and they are generally of the best class of soldiers. It says the Confederate Government is fully alive to the magnitude of the evils and is enforcing the death penalty in case the deserters are caught.

The Mercury says the South should not encourage expectation of recognition.

The Courier discusses the evil of peace, remarking that if we permit them to impose upon us again with their false professions the Yankees will do us infinitely greater injury after the war has terminated than they can do us while the conflict is going on.

NASHVILLE, Nov 12th —Preparations are being made to elect Representatives to the present Congress from Districts in Tennessee now in the occupancy of the Federal troops. Gov. Johnson will probably soon issue a proclamation to that effect.

CAIRO, Nov 14th —On the 9th, ten miles South of Lagrange, Tenn the enemy's cavalry were attacked and routed by Col Lee's Kansas cavalry. One hundred and twenty five rebels were captured, sixteen killed and twenty six wounded. Our loss was only one wounded.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 14 —Last evening's Washington Star says: We have information from the front representing that Floyd's entire force has been recalled from Western Virginia, for the purpose of strengthening the rebel army between the Rappahannock and the Rapidan. If they have not already arrived they will have all been gathered there in a few days. Bragg's movements, too have been mysterious for more than a week past, and rebel citizens of Virginia sincerely believe he is moving up by rail to join Lee's army. But for the recent stay of the advance of our army, all these rebel efforts to strengthen their force would have been too late, for by to-day an engagement that would have placed Gordonsville in McClellan's hands would have been fought and won.

Later from Europe.

HALIFAX, Nov 14th —Earl Russell, in reply to the Garibaldi Committee, stated that the only means he could properly use to obtain the withdrawal of the French troops from Rome consisted in making friendly representations to the French Emperor, and that the representations had already been made, and would be made again.

At a consultation at Spezzia touching Garibaldi's wound, several surgeons were present. The general state of his health is satisfactory. It is believed that no important surgical operation will be required.

The London Globe says the English Cabinet will soon give expression to its views concerning the pirate Alabama.

Professor Cairnes has been lecturing at Dublin on the present American revolution. He held that the success of the North means, if not immediate emancipation, at least the immediate arrest and ultimate extinction of slavery, while the success of the South means the establishment of slavery on a broader and firmer basis.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland was present, and moved a vote of thanks to the lecturer. He deeply deplored the civil war raging in America, and endorsed the neutrality of the British Government.

THOROUGHFARE GAP —A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer thus speaks of this noted spot:

The immense Bull Run mountain seems cleft in twain, as if by some mighty power — The way is scarcely wide enough to admit the passage of a wagon. To an immense height, on each side, rise huge piles of limestone rocks, from whose crevices spring a thousand fountains, whose plashing upon the rocks beneath is echoed ten thousand times. Huge trees form an immense canopy in the hights, rising one above the other. The sun smiles but in few places in the dark passage. The bottom of the gap is filled with rocks and mud, and it seems scarcely possible to a novice in mountain wonders, that either horses or vehicles could pass the torturous rough and dark labarynth. But it was done lately.

The advance guard, led by Stahl and Wyndham, is followed with the rush of artillery and horsemen. The occasional reflection from the bright brass twelve pounders and the tremendous rumbling of the wheels, tells that they are rapidly passing through the awful defile. The clatter of thousands of hoofs and the clanking of the sabers echo with such force as to be painful to the ear. But onward press the gallant band: in a few moments the "old flag" emerges into the glowing sunlight, followed by a brave host of fellows, the echoes of whose shouts burst forth with a stupendous roar from the depths of the gap. The passage is made rapidly and every one breathes freer, as he thinks the usually cowardly enemy have not this time made the gap a mighty tomb for many of them.

WELLS, FARGO & CO —The New York correspondent of the S F Bulletin relates the following:

Wells, Fargo & Co have just done a thing which redounds greatly to their credit. Of the treasure lost in the Golden Gate off Manzanillo nearly one hundred thousand dollars belonged to parties in Boston and was in charge of the above firm, who insured the amount to their consignees. Wells, Fargo & Co paid the whole of these losses in gold (which I presume they were not legally bound to do,) the premium then being about 34a35 per cent premium. At the time of the loss, gold was selling here at 12a13 per cent premium. Doubtless this firm have paid all the other losses of gold in their charge on the same liberal scale, although this is the only case that seems to have found its way into print.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov 14 —The Savannah Republican, of the 9th, says it is generally resolved by the army and citizens to defend that city to the last, and yield Savannah to invaders only when its walls have been battered down, and not one left to dispute their entrance. Gov Brown has issued a call for negroes to complete the fortifications around the city, and if they are not furnished promptly they will be impressed.

NEW YORK, Nov 15 —The prize schooner Water Witch of Kingston, arrived to-day from Aransas Pass, Texas. Her cargo consists of green powder.

The Washington correspondent of the Commercial says, the army will soon be fairly in motion again. All that is now wanted is sufficient cavalry force to patrol the ground over which our troops have already passed and to capture the bands of guerrillas which commit so many annoying and disgraceful raids.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 14th —The Enquirer's correspondent at Gainesville 13th says two negroes brought in a report yesterday, that Gen Lee is on the Gordonsville road about a mile from Culpepper. Longstreet is said to be on the Sperryville road, near Culpepper. Jackson's forces are reported to be on the opposite side of Waterloo Bridge, within a short distance of our forces which are lying there. Gen A H Hill was near Front Royal while the other Hill was with Jackson.

CAIRO, Nov 15th.—The steamer Eugene struck a sunken wreck off Plum Point Bend, Wednesday morning last and sunk. Fifteen lives lost, mostly the crew. Boat valued at $18,000. A large number of passengers who remained on the wreck all night were taken off by steamer Tigress the next morning, and brought to Cairo.

WASHINGTON, Nov 15th —The Navy Department has voluminous dispatches from the Gulf to-day, stating, among other things, that the gunboat Sagamore captured the English schooners Trial and Frances from Nassau with miscellaneous cargoes. The steamer Kensington captured the English schooner Adventure, while attempting to run the blockade off the Texas coast.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov 14th.—Gunboat Connecticut just arrived from the Gulf. Her officers report the entire coast of Texas in possession of Federal forces.

San Francisco Nov 17 —A fire broke out yesterday morning in the building on south east corner of Clay and Montgomery streets. The fire started in the barber shop, on Clay street, the stock of which was consumed, amounting to $600, covered by insurance. Martin & Horton's liquor saloon, Clay street, lost about $500. Lebby & Hirsted cigar store lost $7000, insured $5000. The Morning Call office was destroyed, loss from $1,800 to $2,000 covered by insurance. The paper will be issued to-morrow as usual. Fish's Employment office suffered to the amount of $500. Boyd & Co, hatters, loss small. Dan Driscoll's saloon, next door damage $1,500, not insured. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

While Broderick engine was running down Clay street at a rapid rate a man named J Carson, who had hold of the rope, stumbled and fell, the wheels of the machine passing over his neck along the back part of his head and also over the left foot. He expired before anything could be done for his relief.

John L Durkee, foreman of Monumental 6, received some painful though not serious contusions while discharging his duties.

The Daily Oregonian.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City

CITY COUNCIL —A special session of the City Council was called last night by Acting Mayor McCoy but for want of a quorum no business was transacted The object of the special session was for the consideration of an Ordinance introduced by the Committee on Ways and Means at the last session providing for the levying and collection of city taxes for the present year but which was not acted upon in consequence of the breaking of a quorum by Messrs Coffin, Silvers and Walling This matter should have been attended to long ago, but from one cause or another it has been neglected up to the present time The season is rapidly drawing to a close and is now so far advanced that the City Collector will not have sufficient time to call upon all the tax payers and collect the amounts due hence a large proportion of the revenue which is much needed at this time, will unavoidably be returned as delinquent

There is another matter which should have been attended to at the last Session, but which also failed for the same reason We refer to the claim of the Street Commissioner Something should be done with this claim either paid or rejected in order that the Commissioner may know what to depend on As the matter now stands, nothing further will or can be done towards repairs or improvements, even the most trivial, until this question is settled We are sorry that the members pay so little interest to these matters while others of less importance seem to engross their whole attention

PUBLIC SQUARE —We have neglected to notice the fact that the City Council at its last session passed an ordinance providing for the grading of the public square requiring the work to be completed by the first of March next, we believe We simply wish to add to this item, that we doubt the expediency or necessity of this improvement at this time, when we reflect that the city is already in an embarrassed condition, and other improvements more needed than that While we would be pleased to see our city ornamented and beautified with handsome public squares, parks, promenades and streets, still we believe it wiser policy to husband our means and preserve our credit rather than have such things with an enormous public debt hanging over us. If this expenditure is made it will work too much like putting on a fine hat and going barefooted It has been estimated by competent judges that this work can't be done short of $4,000 That amount expended upon our streets where it is actually needed would materially assist in rendering them useful and beneficial, or if expended in the erection of an engine house, or some other city improvement, would save to the city several hundred dollars yearly in the way of rent, while, if expended as contemplated by this ordinance, it will be of no material or immediate benefit whatever to the city We go upon the principle of dispensing with ornamental show till the necessities of life demand something more substantial

CORONER'S INQUEST —An inquest was held yesterday upon the body of the drowned man found in the river the day before, and the jury returned verdict that he came to his death by drowning. There is no doubt that it was the body of the man who jumped off the Leviathan some time ago His name was H Hasler, and has a wife and family in California. He had been engaged in burning coal at the Dalles, and was on his way home. His body was buried on the river bank some eight miles below this city

RESIGNED —We understand that Mr A G Walling, one of the Councilmen from the Third Ward, has resigned his seat in the City Council. There is now two vacancies in that body, which from several unsuccessful efforts heretofore made, will be difficult to fill

TO CANDIDATES —We respectfully announce to Candidates for offices which are soon to be filled at the election of the Fire Department of the city, and all other Candidates at any other elections, that we will not announce their names as such in our paper unless our fees are prepaid An invariable rule, that cannot be broken.

REGULAR TRIPS —We are informed upon good authority that the steamer Spray will make regular trips, twice a week between the Des Chutes and Wallula during the low water

The Julia brought 85 passengers and 12 head of horses last night from the Cascades No news of importance from the mines or upper country.

THANKS—To S J McCormick for a late copy of the Mountaineer

The Markets.

Notwithstanding the unusually pleasant and dry weather this fall, trade has been unusually dull the past week or more In fact nothing of special note has transpired in our markets since last reports, except in the fact that produce of all kinds has been steadily going out and none coming in The arrivals of produce from the country have greatly fallen off, owing principally to the very low stage of water in the Willamette which prevents the boats on the upper Willamette from running, and also to the unwise policy of a number of farmers in holding on to their produce, expecting higher prices This latter has already caused our merchants and dealers to look abroad for their supplies and we have the intelligence that large quantities of wheat and barley are now on their way to this market from California We regret to hear such things, but our farmers should recollect that so long as articles of produce or anything else can be procured at San Francisco and shipped to this market at less rates than is demanded by them, the merchants and traders of the country will be likely to resort to that market We are confident that there is an abundance of wheat and other articles in Oregon to supply this market for the next six or nine months but if our farmers refuse to bring it in unless they can obtain higher rates than traders can afford to give, they may expect to have it left upon their hands while California will be reaping the benefit of our trade

Should the water in the Willamette continue to remain at this low stage much longer, and those of our farmers who could bring their produce to market continue to withhold it, we may expect a still greater scarcity of such things and hence further and larger shipments from below

We note some slight changes since our report this week in the [illegible] les [illegible] Flour [illegible] [illegible] What [illegible] flour [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] figures which [illegible] [illegible] the upper [illegible] lumber remains [illegible] arrivals during the week

CHARLES BARRETT'S

The Argument of the Census

The "Preliminary Report of the Eighth Census," recently published, furnishes a number of facts which effectually demolish some of the reasons employed to justify secession, as well as to protract the existence of the "peculiar institution." After all the political capital that has been squeezed out of the underground railroad, negro stealing and personal liberty bills, the statistics show that under the peaceful supremacy of the Constitution and with an old standard Union slave property was as secure and reliable an investment as any other property in the country. Superintendent Kennedy, speaking of his tables of fugitive slaves, says: "That the complaint of the extent of loss of property by the escape of this class of persons into the free States and their recovery impeded, whereby its value has been lessened, is the result of misapprehension, is evident not only from the small number who have been lost to their owners, but from the fact that up to the present time the number of escapes has been gradually diminishing to such an extent that the whole annual loss to the Southern States from this cause bears less proportion to the amount of capital involved than the daily variations which in ordinary times occur in the fluctuations of State or Government securities in the city of New York alone. The fact is that only one-fiftieth of one per cent of all the slaves escaped from their masters between June 1, 1859, and June 1, 1860." What insignificant proportions does this pretense for a dissolution of the Union assume when brought into the light of such facts! More slave property is lost during one week of this war than became fugitive during a whole year of the old order of things.

One of the reasons urged for avoiding the anti slavery agitation in the North was that economic considerations would eventually lead to the decrease of slaveholding, especially in the border States. Now the census shows that in but two professedly slave States did the number of slaves decrease during the last decade. In 1850 Delaware contained 2,290 slaves; in 1860, 1,798—being a decrease of 21.48 per cent. In 1850 Maryland contained 90,368 slaves, and in 1860, 87,180—a decrease of a little more than three and a half per cent. In Virginia slavery increased during the decade 3.88 per cent.; in Kentucky 6.87; and in Missouri, 31.17 per cent; and that notwithstanding the border States were slave markets for the South, and lost a number of fugacious chattels. The shadow of this gigantic evil was continually broadening over the land, and the future of the institution, left unmolested in its growth, was appalling to thinking, conscientious men.

Another fact developed by this census is worthy of attention. The rate of increase among the free colored population during the last decade was 720.65 per cent., the rate of increase among the slaves was only 466.43 per cent. If the patriarchal institution is so remarkably conducive to the welfare of the negro, how is this contrast to be explained? Buckle, we think, lays down the social law that the increase of population is generally in proportion to the means of maintaining existence. The inference is, if this be sound, that the free negroes of the South are, to use the pet phrase of pro slavery champions, "better off" than their brethren in bondage.

The principal cause of the revolt of the Southern oligarchy may be found in the comparative growth of the free and slave States during the last decade. The slaveholders are really fighting to suppress the census. Its figures were to them like the handwriting on the wall foretelling the inevitable doom of their political domination.—Look at the relative rank of the States at various periods of our history. From 1790 to 1810, Virginia had a greater population, and consequently a greater representation in Congress than any other State. She now ranks below New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois. Illinois was in 1820 almost a wilderness. She has now a quarter of a million more inhabitants and three more representatives in Congress than Virginia. If all the States were to be represented in the next Congress, the slaveholding States would have but 84 votes to 152 cast by representatives from the free States. And from the nature of things—from the causes that have already produced this shifting of political power—it is evident that the preponderance of the free States must become still more formidable and crushing. In view of what free labor had accomplished for the development of the country, apart from all considerations of justice, humanity and morality, it was to be expected that resolute efforts would be made to secure the yet unsettled territories for the influx of free population. There was no constitutional and peaceable method for preventing this consummation, and, therefore, cherishing as they did a very low estimate of the pluck and spirit of the Northern people, the losing party took up arms to either force the extension of slavery as a policy upon the Government, or frighten the loyal people into acquiescence in Southern independence. But the people who had proved themselves so far superior in the arts and enterprises of peace, unexpectedly showed that they were equal to the stern conflicts and sacrifices of war. From the census the oligarchy appealed to the ordeal of battle. Their gage was accepted, and though the struggle has been desperate, we can already discern the end, rendered inevitable by the revelations the Census Marshals have made.—Sac. Union

An Incident in the Late Rebel Raid.—A gentleman who has just returned from the borders of the State relates the following: After the rebel cavalry left Chambersburg, on their way toward Gettysburg, when about 12 miles distant from the former place they met a large funeral procession, which they ordered to come to a halt. Dismounting from their own horses, they selected forty-three of the best horses in the procession, and amongst them the horse attached to the hearse. No violence was used, but on the contrary the greatest politeness was displayed toward the surprised mourners. At length one of the funeral escort demanded to know by whose orders their horses were thus taken. The reply was, "By order of General McClellan; they are wanted for the army." As soon as the funeral horses were properly secured by their captors they pursued their way to the Potomac, leaving the afflicted friends to find their way with the corpse to the place of burial as best they might.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The message of Jefferson Davis to the Confederate Congress on the subject of incompetent officers, and his practice in removing Generals who fail to win victories, are much commented on in official circles. It is noticed that Van Dorn was instantly removed after losing the battle of Corinth. General Halleck remarks that the same rigid system of accountability would doubtless have saved us from many disasters and reverses in the past, but our leaders are too kind hearted and complaisant to dismiss incompetent Generals from the service. The inquiries into the charges against General Martindale and the surrender of Harper's Ferry will however be followed up by the most rigid justice. The attempts made to restore Major Key and Commander Preble to the service have entirely failed.—Washington Correspondence of the New York Post.

Letter from Salmon River

SALMON RIVER [illegible] 1862.

[illegible] Much has been [illegible] the Salmon river [illegible] Salmon river itself [illegible] midway [illegible] river [illegible] We are now working on this river [illegible] hundred [illegible] length [illegible] general thing [illegible] twenty and twenty-five dollars to the man. [illegible] a few inches [illegible] worked [illegible] bars [illegible] washed gravel [illegible] Our gold is very fine, but of good quality, being worth sixteen dollars per ounce; but when taken to [illegible] will [illegible] much [illegible] mouth of the White [illegible] wood in this region may rank [illegible] at no distant day.

Favorable reports still come in from the new diggings beyond Florence.

We would suppose that the mountains were nearly deserted, seeing the number of men that have passed here on their way to the land of big red apples. But many contemplate turning in on Powder or [illegible] rivers, though the storm has turned up toward [illegible] of late—I do not mean the gust of wind or hurricane that swept down Salmon the other day, snapping a small pine off which stood near our camp, peppering our meat with sand, blowing our fire away and demoralizing our breakfast arrangements generally, insomuch that we were obliged to [illegible]—but I mean the storm of excitement. Many are going thither from these parts, and the probabilities are that provisions will be scarce in that quarter.

Robberies and attempts to rob have been frequent of late through here, but several of the marauders have been caught recently, and are now in confinement, which will probably have a tendency to check them somewhat.

I am under obligations to write to numerous friends in Southern Oregon, but let this letter suffice for all at present.

I. J. HUGHES.

Glorious Iowa.—The luster shed upon Iowa by her soldiers at Wilson's Creek, Belmont, Donelson, Shiloh, Iuka and Corinth, is abundantly reflected back by the vote of the loyal men at home. A rebel officer, it is said, when recently captured by one of the Hawkeye regiments, asked with surprise, "Where is this Iowa that has her forty thousand soldiers in the field? I never heard of the State till this war commenced!" The Democrats who sympathize with the rebellion are in a similar state of wonderment. Iowa has just made her existence remarked, and the traitors North as well as South do not attempt to hide their mortification.

OREGON
State Insane and Idiotic Asylum

DRS. HAWTHORNE & LORYEA,
Physicians and Proprietors.

IN PURSUANCE OF A LAW PASSED BY THE PRESENT Legislative Assembly, the Oregon State Insane and Idiotic Asylum is located in East Portland, in this county, Drs. Hawthorne & Loryea Physicians and Proprietors.

The Proprietors of the above Establishment will immediately make additions to their present buildings, in order to offer accommodations to all who are unfortunate enough to need the care and treatment of an Insane or Idiotic Asylum.

It is especially requested on the part of County Judges, guardians and friends of this class of patients to have them immediately conveyed to the Asylum, so that they may be properly cared for before the inclement weather sets in.

THE INDIGENT WILL BE SUPPORTED AT THE EXPENSE OF THE STATE, and no record of fee made against them. For further particulars apply to

Physicians of the Oregon State Insane
and Idiotic Asylum.

Portland, Multnomah Co., Oct 1[illegible] 186[illegible].

DR BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that [illegible] however delicate [illegible] be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once rest in the pr[illegible] action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain and take out all the poison and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely [illegible] morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a [illegible] Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and [illegible] soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve [illegible] and the swelling [illegible] be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth ache, apply the Pain Panacea on [illegible] at the same time it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose [illegible].

If you have a wound, cut or gall upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.
